As a result, Harry , who stepped from his narrow way as a hard-working, honest show to become a bigamist and thief, may be restored to his former life and the wife and family who await him.

As a result, the four official gorceons who represented science in today's tests hope they may prove theory. Their theory traces much of crime and vice straight to some outraged sympathetic nerve center. By relieving this condition a riminal given up by law may be reormed, they believe.

The four surgeons came at the invitation of Judge Burke. They were Dr. W. A. Guild of Des Moines, Ia., esident-elect of the American Asociation of Orificial Surgery; Dr. G. R. Herkimer of Downgiac, Mich., Dr. Charles J. Lewis of Chicago, and Dr. Eugene Hubbe'l of St. Paul. With Judge Purke they went into
